Re: Lourdes University and Learner's Edge Graduate courses- Professional Development Courses for Educators

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to verify the courses offered in cooperation with Learner's Edge, Inc, are designed specifically as graduate level continuing education courses. They are intended for professional development purposes to help educators learn current pedagogies and topics, meet certification needs, and/or achieve advancement goals. Individuals should verify with their certification/licensing boards that these courses at the graduate level will meet their individual professional development requirements prior to registering.

Currently Learner's Edge, Inc., courses are not a part of any Lourdes University degree program. However, the courses are considered degree-eligible credits, and students may petition to include the credits in a degree program. Acceptance would be based upon the specific degree program and would be subject to the Program Director's decision. Degree-eligibility at other institutions is at the sole discretion of that institution.

Thank you for your interest in completing graduate level continuing education at Lourdes University.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Vincent T. Laverick". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping flourish at the end.
