

October 22, 2025

From: Dr. Billie Cowley, Vice President for Academic Affairs

Re: Upper Iowa University/Teaching Channel with Learners Edge Graduate courses

Upper Iowa University partners with Teaching Channel with Learners Edge to offer graduate level courses to educators wishing to stay current in their educational field. All courses offered through the partnership have been approved by the Master of Education Program Director at Upper Iowa University.

Teaching Channel with Learners Edge courses are transcribed as graduate credit by Upper Iowa University. Up to 12 credits of Teaching Channel with Learners Edge courses can be applied towards the Master of Education program as elective graduate credit. Enrollment in Teaching Channel with Learners Edge does not constitute enrollment in a graduate degree program at Upper Iowa University. Educators completing courses through Teaching Channel with Learners Edge are welcome to apply to a Master of Education degree program at Upper Iowa University through a separate application process.

Upper Iowa University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, and all education programs are fully approved by the Iowa Department of Education.

Thank you for your interest in taking graduate level continuing education courses from Upper Iowa University in partnership with Teaching Channel with Learners Edge.

Sincerely,

Dr. Billie Cowley
Vice President for Academic Affairs
Upper Iowa University